

Good Practices in Accountancy Education

Paul Thompson

EFAA Director

EU REPARIS

Vienna, Austria

June 1

Who We Are

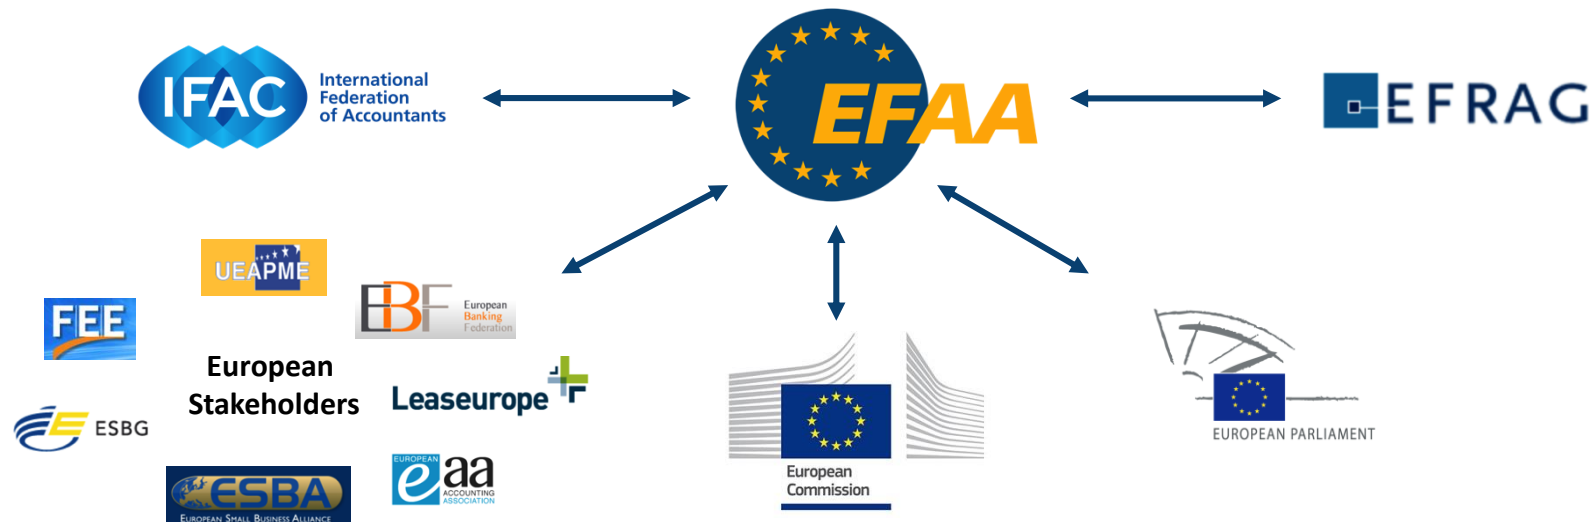

- ★ EFAA is an organisation of 17 national accounting and auditing associations
 - ★ Representing more than 370.000 professionals
 - ★ Supporting professionals working as SMPs and mainly servicing SMEs
 - ★ Twitter - @EFAAforSMEs
- Website – www.efaa.com

What We Do

- ★ Assists member organisations in their efforts to strengthen SMPs and SMEs in professional public affairs
- ★ Over twenty years experience and focuses primarily on engaging with the European Institutions, European SMP / SME accounting and auditing stakeholders and IFAC

Need for Change

- ★ Changing societal role and expectations of accountants
- ★ Increased focus on advisory
- ★ Growing importance of soft skills
- ★ Technological developments
- ★ Accounting firm to accountant led firm
- ★and people / talent is profession's greatest asset!

Commitment to Life-Long Learning / Supporting a Quality Learning Environment

- ★ Tone at the top
 - ★ Leadership must be seen to be 'walking the talk'
- ★ Online platforms / apps
 - ★ Anyplace, anytime learning in small bites
 - ★ Integrated testing / assessment

Collaboration and Partnerships

- ★ Participation in industry / academic advisory boards of business schools and universities
 - ★ Emerging trends
 - ★ Curriculum development
- ★ Accountants serving as adjunct professors
 - ★ Practical and real life examples
 - ★ Giving back