Accounting and Auditing Reform Momentum Forum

March 17, 2025, Vienna, Austria

Part of the 2025 CFRR Ministerial Conference

Accounting and Auditing Reform Momentum Forum

March 17, 2025, Imperial Riding School Hotel, Vienna, Austria

FOREWORD

Accounting and Auditing Reform Momentum Forum will convene around 150 participants including senior officials, representatives of the state institutions from participating countries, international development partners, professional accountancy organizations, university and business experts.

The Forum aims to inform participants on the recent developments in financial reporting, and auditing in private and public sector amid climate and AI challenges, to provide rationale for reforms and also to set the scene with information before high level Ministerial Conference on the subsequent day.

This agenda ensures a comprehensive coverage of the latest developments and challenges in the field of accounting and auditing, providing valuable insights and practical strategies for professionals and public officials. The Forum is also opportunity for collaboration across countries by sharing experience and networking between private and public sector professionals.

The Forum is organized a part of three CFRR-implemented programs: (i) The Public Sector Accounting and Reporting Program (PULSAR), (ii) The Road to Europe: Program of Accounting Reform and Institutional Strengthening for Small and Medium Enterprises (REPARIS for SMEs), (iii) The Enhancing Accounting, Auditing, and Sustainability Reporting Program (EAASURE).

The Forum will be organized to complement the following CFRR events: by:

- March 17 – Climate Change Action by State-Owned Enterprises Workshop
- March 18 – Ministerial Conference “Financial and Sustainability Reporting Reforms: Navigating Green and Digital Agendas”
- March 19 – Sustainability Reporting Workshop

The language of the conference is English with simultaneous interpretation into Albanian, Bosnian, Croatian, Serbian and Russian.
